Beauty

Timeless Beauty. Throughout architecture's rich history, no other basic element has served the dual purpose of both structure and design so perfectly as the column. Reaching back thousands of years, its form and function is as relevant today as it was in ancient times.

The Royal Décor Antiquity Collection upholds all the true timeless beauty of the traditional column design, but utilizes our patented formulation technology to create a substantially superior product ... one that delivers so many benefits to life in a modern world. Traditional or contemporary – the Royal Décor Antiquity Collection offers a wide selection of design ideas to meet the needs and tastes of any home.

Classic Design

ENJOY TIMELESS
ARCHITECTURAL DETAILING THAT ADDS VALUE AND ELEGANCE TO YOUR HOME.

Classic Design. Made of a unique composite polymer and vinyl, The Royal Décor Antiquity Collection stands the test of time in any application. The benefits of exceptional durability and structural strength mean they can be used in all traditional applications and are virtually maintenance-free. When you add this with their ease of installation, it's no wonder why so many builders and homeowners are turning to The Royal Décor Antiquity Collection.

While traditional materials can rot and wear over time, Antiquity Columns are termite-proof and moisture resistant to prevent rotting, cracking, peeling or splitting. All of which translates to more time spent enjoying your beautiful home.

Elegant Living

*C*REATE THE SPACE YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED.

Elegant Living. The Royal Décor Antiquity Collection gives you the freedom to add and enhance any space outside your home. With options to wrap around existing structural supports or to replace existing weathered columns, our product line offers an elegant addition to any home. With so much choice and so many possibilities, the question isn't "Where do you start?", it's "When do you stop?"

A decorative element for a front entrance ... a finishing touch to your back deck, The Antiquity Collection from Royal Décor adds beauty and value that can be enjoyed for years to come.

Column Styles

ROUND

Graceful Elegance. The Round Column creates a distinct and elegant architectural detail while providing true architectural support. Ideal for exterior applications, the Round Column always makes an impressive statement. Graceful curves can be accented with alternate top detail accessory to suit your individual taste. Suitable for use in standard colors or pre-primed for painting, color coordination is easy.
